A NOTE FROM SENIOR WARDEN KIM BROOKSBY

Thanks so much to all who have hung in there through the ups and downs of service schedules the last few weeks. Our "time of trial" (an hour later for the eight o'clockers and an hour earlier for the 10 o'clockers) is almost over! From July 29 - August 30, we will be having one service at 9:00am. (See schedule to the right.) There is a precedence for this! When my children were young, I remember attending one service, a low Mass. After Labor Day, the two services began again. Am I the only one who remembers that? I believe it was Bishop Conner's tradition. We will have at least one sung Mass in August, when Bishop Mitchell comes on the 16th. The remaining Sundays will be a 9:00am Morning Prayer service with music. Joseph Ortiz will do two services, and Leo Connor has graciously agreed to come to Portland for each of the remaining Sundays. On a positive note, I have thoroughly enjoyed seeing all of us at one service and chatting with those I don't get to see as often. Haven't you?

As I said in my letter, Fr. Caleb is committed to honoring our tradition of Masses at 8:00am and a 10:00am. His first Sunday celebrating Mass will be September 6th!

A quick reminder: please maintain your giving. We've just hired a rector, so now is not the time to be forgetful. Thank you!
